

Kuba Sojka

Kuba Sojka is a young producer, live performer and musician from Silesia, Poland. 2017 is the year when his first musical experiments were presented under the pseudonym Psi-Acoustic, where he created ambient and down-tempo music with elements of IDM, dub and minimal techno. Two years later, he began his career making music under his real name and created Detroit techno, deep house, acid house, minimal, tech-house and future jazz. This led him on to collaborate with legendary Detroit label, Matrix Records.

His continued music production has focused on collaboration with the Chicago Mathematics Recordings label, which presents his more jazzy and soulful face, but not only through the „Bright shadow of a star” EP, but from a bigger thanks to the album „Mysterious Intrigue” released on 2x12”. That release boldly displayed how Kuba can combine a bit of the artistic world in jazz and underground club sound of Detroit techno and Chicago house. This alone didn't confirm the listeners of his music. It was also due to the fact that he presents a real and sincere vibe and is open to new and developing sounds World-Wide.

Kuba often works with Minimalsoul Recordings on production and performance as well as releasing for the London based Souliner Records. The wide range of music that Kuba provides in his performances gives him the ability to improvise, which displays his live and dynamic persona and is appreciated by a variety of audiences. Kuba is one of the leading representatives of the Polish electronic music scene that presents his music outside of Polish clubs and festivals. Since honing his talents and releasing on international labels; the way has been paved for performing in foreign clubs and events alike.

Kuba's experiences in music are a rare breed. He not only intends to present his musical productions, but he encourages others to seek new sounds and quality aesthetics in music.